Information We Collect

Information We Obtain About You

We obtain certain personal information in connection with the products and services we provide. The types of personal information we obtain include:

- Contact information, such as name, phone number, and email and postal address;

- Account information, such as online password and other log-in details used to access Ring products and services;
- Payment information, such as name, billing address and payment card details, including card number, expiration date and security code, which is collected and stored by our third-party payment processor on our behalf. Ring stores only the last four digits of your payment card and the expiration date;
- The geolocation of your mobile device or certain Ring devices if you consent to the collection of this data. Certain features, such as Geofence, collect geolocation in the background (that is, when the app is running but is minimized or not visible on your screen), but only with your permission when you enable these features
- Product setup information, such as the name and description of your Ring product (for example, "Ring Doorbell – Front Door") and the location where you install your Ring product, and adjustments you make to the product setup;
- Technical information about your Ring product, such as your Wi-Fi network information and signal strength, and your Ring product's model, serial number and software version;
- Data about your interactions with our websites and mobile apps, including your mobile network;
- Social media handles, content and other data posted on our official social media pages;
- Information we obtain from third-party social media services (e.g., Facebook) or payment services (e.g., PayPal) if you choose to link to, create or log into your Ring account through these services (including when you share Ring videos or content via your social media account);
- Information we obtain from third-party business partners if you choose to use Works With Ring products or services, such as your account ID, account name and email address;
- Information you submit in connection with a career opportunity at Ring, such as contact details, information in your resume and details about your current employment;
- Other personal information contained in content you submit to us, such as through our "Contact Us" feature or customer support tools on our websites or mobile apps.
- Content (and related information) that is captured and recorded when using our products and services, such as video or audio recordings, live video or audio streams, images, comments, and data our products collect from their surrounding environment to perform their functions (such as motion, events, temperature and ambient light).

Information We Obtain by Automated Means

When you interact with our products and services, we obtain certain information by automated means, such as cookies, web server logs, web beacons, and other technologies. For more information about the types of cookies used on our site and the information we collect using cookies, please visit our Cookie Policy.

We may use these automated technologies to collect information about your equipment, browsing actions, and usage patterns. The information we obtain in this manner may include your device IP address, identifiers associated with your devices, types of devices connected to our services, web browser characteristics, device characteristics, language preferences, referring/exit pages, clickstream data, and dates and times of website or app visits. These technologies help us (1) remember your information so you will not have to re-enter it; (2) track and understand you use and interact with our products and services; (3) tailor the services around your preferences; (4) measure the usability of our products and services and the effectiveness of our communications; and (5) otherwise manage and enhance our products and services, and help ensure they are working properly.

How We Use The Information We Collect

We may use the personal information we obtain about you to:

- Provide our products and services to you;
- Establish and manage your Ring account and profile;
- Process and fulfill claims and orders in connection with our products and services and keep you informed about the status of your order;
- Personalize your experience with our products and services;
- Allow you to stream, save and share content through our services;
- Identify and authenticate you so you may access certain content or use certain of our services;
- Increase and maintain the safety and security of our products and services and prevent misuse;
- Communicate with you (including providing you with offers and other communications about our products and services) and provide customer support;
- Allow you to interact with certain third-party products or services (for example, to enable you to link to, or view content from, third-party sites within our services, or connect to third-party products and services through Works With Ring);
- Perform analytics (including market and consumer research, trend analysis and financial analysis);
- Manage career opportunities at Ring; including for recruitment purposes, employee onboarding and other HR purposes;
- Operate, evaluate, develop, manage and improve our business (including operating, administering, analyzing and improving our products and services; developing new products and services; managing and evaluating the effectiveness of our communications; performing accounting, auditing, billing reconciliation and collection activities and other internal functions);
- Protect against, identify and prevent fraud and other criminal activity, claims and other liabilities; and
- Comply with and enforce applicable legal requirements, relevant industry standards and policies, including this Privacy Notice and our Terms of Service.

We also may use the personal information we collect about you in other ways for which we provide specific notice at the time of collection and obtain your consent if required by applicable law.

Web & App Analytics Services

We also use third-party web and app analytics services on our websites and mobile apps. Some of these services use automated technologies to collect and analyze information, including personal information (such as email and IP addresses) to understand how you use our websites and mobile apps. Web and app analytics services help us improve features, evaluate the effectiveness of our marketing, and, ultimately, optimize the customer experience. To learn more about these analytics services, please see our Cookie Policy. To make a selection regarding web and app analytics cookies placed by third parties, please visit the Control Center or Cookie Settings Manager to set your preferences.

Online Tracking and Interest-Based Advertising

When you use our websites and apps, information about your online activities may be collected to provide you with advertising about products and services tailored to your interests. This section of our Privacy Notice provides details and explains how to exercise your choices.

You may see our ads on other websites or mobile apps because we participate in advertising networks. Ad networks allow us to target our messaging to individuals considering demographic data, individuals' inferred interests and browsing context. These networks track individuals' online activities over time by collecting information through automated means, including through the use of cookies, web server logs, web beacons and other similar technologies. The networks use this information to show ads that may be tailored to individuals' interests, to track individuals' browsers or devices across multiple websites, and to build a profile of individuals' online browsing activities. The information our ad networks may collect includes data about individuals' visits to websites that participate in the relevant ad networks, such as the pages or ads viewed and the actions taken on the websites. This data collection takes place both on our websites and on third-party websites that participate in the ad networks. This process also helps us track the effectiveness of our marketing efforts.

Our websites are not designed to respond to "do not track" signals received from browsers. To learn how to opt out of ad network interest-based advertising in the U.S., please visit www.aboutads.info/choices, http://www.networkadvertising.org/choices/, http://preferences-mgr.truste.com/ and our Cookie Policy. You can also visit the Control Center or Cookie Settings Manager to set your preferences for the Ring websites and mobile apps.

Information Sharing

We do not sell or otherwise share personal information about you except as described in this Privacy Notice. We may share your personal information with (1) our affiliates and subsidiaries and (2) our service providers who perform services on our behalf, such as marketing, customer service, order fulfillment and data analytics and storage. We do not authorize our service providers to use or disclose your personal information except as necessary to perform services on our behalf or comply with legal requirements. We also may share personal information with our business partners (1) with whom we jointly offer products and services; (2) to the extent you use Works With Ring to connect to third-party products or services; and (3) for payment processing and fraud prevention purposes.

We also may disclose personal information about you (1) if we are required to do so by law or legal process (such as a court order or subpoena); (2) to establish, exercise or defend our legal rights; (3) when we believe disclosure is necessary or appropriate to prevent physical or other harm or financial loss; (4) in connection with an investigation of suspected or actual illegal activity; or (5) otherwise with your consent.

We reserve the right to transfer any personal information we have about you in the event we sell or transfer all or a portion of our business or assets (including in the event of a merger, acquisition, joint venture, reorganization, divestiture, dissolution or liquidation).

Your Choices

We offer you certain choices in connection with the personal information we obtain about you.

You can visit the Control Center or Cookie Settings Manager to set your preferences for the Ring website and mobile app.

You may opt out of receiving promotional communications from us by following the unsubscribe instructions in the communications you receive. We do need to send you certain communications about our products and services, and you will not be able to opt out of those communications. This includes, for example, information about billing.

When you purchase our products, you may choose to use a Ring subscription plan ("Subscription Plan") on a trial or subscription basis. If you have enabled the recording features of a Subscription Plan, we retain the recordings (and any related information) from your product during your recording subscription period so you can access your content during that time period. You may delete your recordings from a Subscription Plan at any time by accessing your account. Additionally, regardless of your use of a Subscription Plan, we retain recordings you share on Ring Neighbors if you choose to participate in the Ring Neighbors feature (see Terms of Service for additional information).

In addition, to the extent required by applicable law, you may have the right to request access to or delete your personal data. If you wish to do any of these things, you can submit a request or contact customer support by visiting here

EU-U.S., UK Extension, and Swiss-U.S. Data Privacy Frameworks

Ring participates in the EU-U.S. Data Privacy Framework, the UK Extension to the EU-U.S. Data Privacy Framework, and the Swiss-U.S. Data Privacy Framework. Click here to learn more

Other Third-Party Services and Features

Our products, services, or websites may allow you to link to those of third parties in order to provide certain features or experiences. For example, you may be able to connect your Ring device or account to a non-Ring service (such as a third-party Works With Ring product or your Amazon account).

In addition, our website and mobile apps may provide links to other online services for your convenience and information, and may include third-party features such as apps, tools, payment services, widgets and plug-ins (e.g., Facebook, X or PayPal buttons).

These third-party services and features may operate independently from us. The privacy practices of the relevant third parties, including details on the information they may collect about you, is subject to the privacy statements of these parties, which we strongly suggest you review. To the extent any linked online services or third-party features are not owned or controlled by us, Ring is not responsible for these third parties' information practices. By using or engaging with such services and features, you are requesting and authorizing us to transfer or provide access to information on your behalf, for example, your account ID, email address, data about your Ring device usage or collected by your Ring device, etc.

How We Protect Personal Information

We maintain administrative, technical and physical safeguards designed to protect personal information against accidental, unlawful or unauthorized destruction, loss, alteration, access, disclosure or use.

Policies for Children

We recognize the importance of protecting children's online privacy. Ring's products and services are intended for a general audience and are not directed to children. We do not knowingly collect personal information online from children under the age of 13.

Updates To Our Privacy Notice

This Privacy Notice may be updated periodically to reflect changes in our personal information practices. You should check our Services frequently to see recent changes. We will notify you of material changes to our Privacy Notice and indicate at the top of the notice when it was most recently updated.
