By providing us with an email address, you agree that we may use your email address to communicate with you about our services and select messages from our partners or affiliates.

(NOTE: Opt-out options are discussed in the section entitled "Cookies, Tracking and Internet-based Advertising".)

Cookies, Tracking and Internet-based Advertising

This website works with companies that offer third-party products or services ("Service Providers"). These include Facebook, Google, and other Service Providers who help us track and analyze visitor activity on the website, measure the effectiveness of our advertising efforts, and support the optimization of our digital marketing campaigns.

The website uses "cookies," tracking pixels and related technologies. These can be set by us or by our Service Providers.

Cookies are small data files that online services can store on, and retrieve from, a user's computer or mobile device through the user's web browser. The information is stored and retrievable either for the duration of a website visit (known as "session cookies"), or until some later point in time set by the website setting the cookie (known as "persistent cookies").

Examples of information we and our Service Providers collect include how often someone visits this website and what they do while on the website. We and our Service Providers use this information in the aggregate to understand how our visitors as a group use different resources and to help us improve our website. We and our Service Providers also collect information about the activity of individual website users. This information may be used to direct related advertisements and/or informational content to website users when they visit other websites.

Most internet browsers accept cookies by default, but you can modify your browser preferences to block or restrict cookies if you do not want your web browsing activity tracked. There are a variety of tools publicly available to manage cookies and similar technologies that collect information related to your use of the website. Learn more from (i) the FTC or (ii) the Digital Advertising Alliance opt-out page, which allows users to opt out from receiving interest-based advertising.

We are not responsible for the effectiveness or compliance of third party opt-out mechanisms or programs. Please note that if you delete your cookies or upgrade your browser after having opted out, you will need to opt out again. Further, if you use multiple browsers or devices you will need to opt out on each browser or device. You can access the information on this website without enabling cookies in your browser but disabling cookies may result in a diminished ability to take advantage of the services and related informational content on the website.

We calculate metrics like bounce rate, page views, sessions and the like to understand how our website/app is used. We may also create visitors' profiles based on browsing history to analyze visitor behavior, show personalized content and run online campaigns.

Our Service Providers may acquire additional information about your activity on our website, including pages you visit, access times, visit duration, how you arrived at our website and your IP address. An IP address is a number that identifies a device connected to the Internet. For most devices, the IP address changes on at least a weekly basis. Our Service Providers may also acquire device identifiers and specific information about the browser you use. In some cases, this information may be unique to you.
