Coolmath4Kids

Effective Date: September 29, 2023

This Policy describes how we treat personal information on the websites where it is located. This Policy does not apply to other Coolmath.com, LLC websites or apps, such as Coolmath.com or CoolmathGames.com.

Collection or Use of Personal Information

CoolMath4Kids and the third parties that it works with do not collect or use personal user information, except for the purpose of providing support for the internal operations of the website. This includes collection or use of persistent identifiers or tracking technologies, such as browser cookies, web beacons, flash cookies, and pixel tags.

To the extent that any persistent identifiers are used in connection with the CoolMath4Kids website, these technologies are used to support the internal operations of the website. These uses may include, but are not limited to:

- Maintaining or analyzing website function, such as analyzing the number of website visitors
- Performing network communications
- Displaying advertisements that are not targeted to a particular user based on the user's particular habits, but are instead based on the context of this website
- Limiting the frequency that contextual advertisements are displayed
- Protecting security of this website, company, and website visitors
- Complying with laws or regulations, such as responding to a court order or subpoena.

CoolMath4Kids, and the third parties that it works with, does not use persistent identifiers to serve targeted advertising to the users of this website.

Sharing of Personal Information

We may share information from persistent identifiers described above with third parties who perform services on our behalf, but only for the purpose of supporting the internal operations of the website, as described above.

This Site and Children

As described above, we do not knowingly collect personally identifiable information from children under 13.

If you are a parent or legal guardian and have questions about this privacy policy or think your child under 13 has given us information, you can email us at privacy@coolmath.com.

You can also write to us at the address listed at the end of this policy. Please mark your inquiries “COPPA Information Request for CoolMath4Kids.” Parents, to learn more about how to protect children's privacy online, click here

Security

The Internet is not 100% secure. We cannot promise that your use of our sites will be completely safe. We encourage you to use caution when using the Internet. We keep personal information as long as it is necessary or relevant for the practices described in this Policy. We also keep information as otherwise required by law.

Links to Other Sites

If you click on a link to another website, you may be taken to websites with different privacy policies. This policy does not apply to the privacy practices of that website. Read the privacy policy of other websites carefully.
