General Privacy Policy

Effective date: July 9, 2025

StudyPad, Inc. ("Company," "SplashLearn" "we," "us," "our,") knows that you care about how your and your child's Personal Data is used and shared. Please read this General Privacy Policy to learn how we treat your Personal Data if you are not a Child User (defined below), such as Parent, teacher or school administrator. If you're a Child User of SplashLearn's Services, your use of SplashLearn's Services and our collection and processing of Child User's Personal Data is governed by the Child User Privacy Policy.

By visiting the SplashLearn website or any other linked pages, features, content, or applications offered from time to time by Company in connection therewith (collectively, the "Services"), or using any of our Services, you acknowledge that you accept the practices and policies outlined below and you hereby consent that we will collect, use and share your data as described in this General Privacy Policy.

Remember that your use of SplashLearn's Services is at all times subject to our Terms of Use, which incorporates both the General and Child User Privacy Policies. Any terms we use in this Policy without defining them have the definitions given to them in the Terms of Use or Child User Privacy Policy.

What Does This Privacy Policy Cover?

This General Privacy Policy covers how we treat Personal Data that we gather when non-Child Users access or use our Services. "Personal Data" means any information that identifies or relates to a particular individual and also includes information referred to as "personally identifiable information" or "personal information" under applicable data privacy laws, rules or regulations. This policy does not apply to the practices of companies that Company does not own or control, or to individuals that Company does not employ or manage.

If you have any questions about this privacy policy or how your Personal Data or Child User Personal Data is handled, please email us at compliance@splashlearn.com

How is Child User Personal Data Treated?

For a detailed overview of how we process Child User Personal Data, please see the Child User Privacy Policy.

What Personal Data Does the Company Collect?

The Personal Data you provide is used for such purposes as providing you the Services, answering questions, sending product updates, and communicating with you about Company's products and services, including specials and new features. The Child User's Personal Data you provide shall only be used for creating individual accounts (which will allow you to receive progress reports that include tracking your child's performance and progress). You can choose not to provide us with certain data, but then you may not be able to take advantage of many of our special features.

You may review, modify, stop collection of or remove your Personal Data or, if you are a Parent, your Child User's Personal Data identified below at any time by logging into your account and accessing features to edit your profile and/or account information.

If you are a teacher or a School, by sharing information about students ("Student Data") or other data to SplashLearn, you expressly grant, and you represent and warrant that you have all rights necessary to grant, to SplashLearn a non-exclusive, royalty-free, worldwide license during the term of the Agreement to use, transmit, distribute, modify, reproduce, display, and store the Student Data solely for the purposes of (i) providing the Services as contemplated by the Agreement, and as otherwise described herein, (ii) maintaining, supporting, evaluating, improving and developing our products, applications, and Service, and (iii) enforcing our rights under the Agreement.

We collect the following types of data from our non-Child Users:

Contact and Payment Information

We collect your email address, account password, zip code, phone number, credit card and/or other payment information and any other information necessary for us to provide the Services. If you are a teacher or a school administrator we also collect your school name from you in order to provide you school level features and prevent misuse of the Services meant for teachers and Schools.

We also offer Parents and teachers the ability to sign up for the Services using their existing Facebook or Google account. If you choose to sign up for the Services using one of these accounts, we may receive your full name and other information from the service provider managing that account.

Additionally, you may also provide us with additional Personal Data when you contact us for product or technical support like an alternate communication method which we will use to answer your queries and process your requests. If you are using the service as an Educational Institution, Student Data may be visible during Customer Support and/or Troubleshooting. Personal Data such as name, email address, login dates and times may be viewed on our Service by product support staff.

Push Notifications

If opted-in, we may send practice and live class reminders, alerts about offers, in-app activity, new events, content and features designed for Parents and teachers in the form of notifications through our mobile applications. You can turn-off these notifications or modify the frequency of these notifications at any time through the app or device settings.

Activity Data

We receive and store certain types of information whenever you interact with our Services or use our Services. Company automatically receives and records information on our server logs from your browser including your IP address, Cookie information, and the page you requested.

Cookies

The Services also use cookies and similar technologies such as pixel tags, web beacons, clear GIFs and JavaScript (collectively, "Cookies"). Cookies are small pieces of data– usually text files – placed on your computer, tablet, phone or similar device when you use that device to access our Services. We may also supplement the information we collect from you with information received from third parties, including third parties that have placed their own Cookies on your device(s). Please note that because of our use of Cookies, the Services do not support "Do Not Track" requests sent from a browser at this time.

We use information collected through Cookies and usage of the Services for purposes such as to learn more about our user base; analyze trends; authenticate and secure the Services; enhance and personalize your experience; and in general to improve and operate our Services.

Such technology is also used to receive confirmation when you open an email from us. We use this confirmation to help us make emails more interesting and helpful. When you receive emails from us, you can opt out of receiving further emails by following the included instructions to unsubscribe.

Advertising

We may run advertising campaigns to market our Services and use technology such as cookies to analyze the performance of advertising and improve them. We do not display third party advertisements on our Services or use third party Cookies to track Child Users for advertising purposes. We also do not engage in targeted advertising based on Student Data or Child User Personal Data.

For more information about our use of Cookies, please see our Cookie Policy.

We will not collect additional categories of Personal Data or use the Personal Data we collected for materially different, unrelated or incompatible purposes without providing you notice.

Will the Company Share any of the Personal Data it Collects?

Your Personal Data and Child User's Personal Data is an integral part of our business. We neither rent nor sell your Personal Data or Child User Personal Data to anyone. We share your Personal Data and Child User Personal Data only as described below. We never share that Child User's Personal Data with any third party other than service providers. Usage data (i.e. performance on tests, games, etc. available on the Services) is shared through aggregated, anonymous comparisons, but never in a way that could personally identify a user. In addition, we do not offer students chat rooms or community features that allow the sharing or posting of Child User's Personal Data in a public forum.

We employ APIs of other companies and people to perform tasks on our behalf and may need to share your information with them, including Personal Data or Child User's Personal Data, to provide products or services to you. Examples include sending billing receipts and weekly progress reports and providing user services. Unless we tell you differently, these companies do not have any right to use Personal Data or Child User's Personal Data we share with them beyond what is necessary to execute tasks at hand. We will also require that these companies agree to protect the security of the information we share with them. For any privacy inquiries related to how these companies may handle your information on our behalf, please use the contact information of SplashLearn at the bottom of this page, and we will respond to all such inquiries.

We disclose your information to the categories of service providers and other parties listed in this section. For more information, please refer to the state-specific sections below.

Questions or Concerns

Here is the list of partners that we work with.

Sharing with Affiliated Businesses and Business Transfers

Over time, SplashLearn may grow and reorganize. We may share your information, including Personal Data and Child User's Personal Data with affiliates such as a parent company, subsidiaries, joint venture partners or other companies that we control or that are under common control with us, in which case we will require those companies to agree to use your Personal Data and Child User's Personal Data in a way that is consistent with this Privacy Policy.

In the event that SplashLearn is involved in a merger, reorganization, dissolution, sale of business or assets or similar event, information disclosed to or collected by may be transferred to SplashLearn's successor, or to the purchaser of such assets, as applicable. We will notify you within thirty (30) days following the completion of such a transaction via email and a prominent notice on our Website of any change in ownership or uses of your Personal Data, as well as any choices you may have regarding your Personal Data.

Promotional Offers

We may send offers to you on behalf of other businesses. However, when we do so, we do not give the other business your name and address and such communications will not be sent to Child Users. If you do not wish to receive these offers, please unsubscribe using the instructions provided in the email, the account management tools on the website, or by sending an email with your request to help@splashlearn.com

Legal Obligations

We may share any Personal Data or Child User Personal Data that we collect with third parties in conjunction with any of the activities set forth under "Meeting Legal Requirements and Enforcing Legal Terms" in the "Our Commercial or Business Purposes for Collecting Personal Data" section above.

Protection of Company and Others

We may release Personal Data or Child User Personal Data to protect the rights, property, or safety of the Company, our employees, our users, or others. This includes, in the case of Personal Data, exchanging information with other companies and organizations for fraud protection and credit risk reduction.

Data that is Not Personal Data

We may create aggregated, de-identified or anonymized data from the Personal Data and Child User Personal Data we collect, including by removing information that makes the data personally identifiable to a particular user ("Anonymized Data"). We may use such Anonymized Data and share it with third parties for our lawful business purposes, including to analyze, build and improve the Services and promote our business, provided that we will not share such data in a manner that could identify the user.

Is Personal Data and Child User Personal Data Secure?

The security of your Personal Data and Child User Personal Data is important to us. To prevent unauthorized access, disclosure, or improper use of your information, and to maintain data accuracy, we've established physical, technical, and administrative safeguards to protect the Personal Data and Child User Personal Data we collect. In particular:

- We periodically review our information collection, storage and processing practices, including physical security measures, to guard against unauthorized access to systems.
- We perform application security testing; penetration testing; conduct risk assessments; and monitor compliance with security policies.
- When you enter any information anywhere on the Service, we encrypt the transmission of that information using secure socket layer technology (SSL) by default.
- SplashLearn's database where we store your Personal Data and Child User Personal Data is encrypted at rest, which converts all Personal Data or Child User Personal Data stored in the database to an unintelligible form.
- We ensure passwords are stored and transferred securely using encryption and salted hashing.
- SplashLearn's Website and the Service is hosted by third-party service providers at separate facilities, with whom we have a contract providing for enhanced security measures.
- We restrict access to Personal Data and Child User Personal Data to authorized SplashLearn employees, agents or independent contractors who need to know that information in order to process it for us, and who Company endeavors to protect user information to ensure that user account information is kept private, however, Company cannot guarantee the security of user account information. Your Personal Data or Child User Personal Data is protected by a password for your privacy and security. You need to ensure that there is no unauthorized access to your account and Personal Data or Child User Personal Data by selecting and protecting your password appropriately and limiting access to your computer and browser by signing off after you have finished accessing your account.

Unauthorized entry or use, hardware or software failure, and other factors, may compromise the security of user information at any time. The website contains links to other sites. Company is not responsible for the privacy policies and/or practices on other sites. When linking to another site you should read the privacy policy stated on that site. This Privacy Policy only governs information collected on the Services. Please be aware that whenever you voluntarily post information to public areas on the Services or any other public forums, such information can be accessed by the public.

If SplashLearn becomes aware of a systems security breach by an unauthorized party or that any user data was used for an unauthorized purpose, we will comply with relevant state and other data breach laws. We will notify users of any breach resulting in unauthorized release of data electronically, at minimum, and without unreasonable delay so that you can take appropriate steps. The notification will include: date of the breach, the types of information that were subject to the breach, general description of what occurred and steps SplashLearn is taking to address the breach.

Data Deletion & Retention

We store your Personal Data or Child User Personal Data for as long as it is necessary to provide products and Services, including those described above. When establishing a retention period for specific categories of data, we consider who we collected the data from, our need for the Personal Data, why we collected the Personal Data, and the sensitivity of the Personal Data. Personal Data or Child User Personal Data associated with your account will be kept until your account is deleted unless we no longer need the data to provide products and Services. Please note that we may have to retain some information after your account is deleted, to comply with legal obligations, to protect the safety and security of our community or our Service, or to prevent abuse of our Terms. We may further retain information in an anonymous or aggregated form where that information would not identify an individual personally.

Deleting Your Account

You have the right to ask us to delete your account at any time. You can do so by contacting us at help@splashlearn.com. In case a Parent wants to get a student's classroom account deleted, please contact the student's school.

What happens when an account is deleted: SplashLearn de-identifies or deletes any Personal Data tied to the accounts, including emails, usernames, device token, device identifiers, IP addresses. Some information may persist in backups that we maintain, for a reasonable amount of time. SplashLearn retains de-identified usage information about the accounts unless we contractually obligated to delete such information.

When a teacher or school administrator deletes an account from within their SplashLearn dashboard, the deleted accounts are kept in a recoverable state for 14 days before the deletion actually takes place. This is done so that any erroneous deletions on the user's part can be recovered and accounts may be restored.

Please note that after an account is deleted from our systems, it is not possible for us to restore the account or any Personal Data or Child User Personal Data associated with it.

For details on our retention policy around Child User Personal Data and associated adult users' Personal Data please refer to the "Data Deletion and Retention" section in the Child User Privacy Policy

Communication Choices

During the time that you use the Services, you will receive emails from us, which includes emails around new features and updates, practice reports and reminders, promotional offers and account related emails. Such communications will not be sent to Child Users.

You may opt-out from receiving emails from within your SplashLearn account, or by using unsubscribe links included in the emails themselves. Opting out from certain types of emails may prevent us from providing you key portions of the services, such as providing progress reports that explain your child's performance and progress using the Services.

Please note even if you subscribe, we will still need to send certain essential emails while you have an account with us. These may include payment related emails, important legal or security related updates.

State Law Privacy Rights

If you reside in certain U.S. states such as California, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, Iowa, Montana, Nebraska, New Hampshire, New Jersey, Oregon, Texas, Utah, and Virginia you may have certain rights afforded to you (as described below) depending on your state of residence. Please see the 'Exercising Your Rights under U.S. State Privacy Laws' section below for instructions regarding how to exercise these rights. Please note that your rights may be subject to certain conditions or exceptions in accordance with applicable U.S. State Privacy Laws.

If you have any questions about this section or whether any of the following rights apply to you, please contact us at help@splashlearn.com.

Access: You may have the right to request confirmation of or access to the Personal Data that we process about you. You can also request access to a portable copy of your Personal Data. If you are an Oregon resident, you also have the right to request a list of specific third parties, other than natural persons, to which we have disclosed your Personal Data.

Deletion: You may have the right to request that we delete the Personal Data that we have collected about you.

Correction: You may have the right to request that we correct any inaccurate Personal Data we have collected about you.

Portability: You may have the right to request a copy of your Personal Data in a machine-readable format, to the extent technically feasible.

Questions or Concerns

"Selling," "Sharing," or "Targeted Advertising"

As described in the "Cookies" section above, certain Cookies placed by third parties into our Services may allow those third parties to collect your Personal Data for measuring effectiveness of advertising campaigns and/or targeted advertising purposes. Under certain U.S. State Privacy Laws, this may constitute a "sale" and/or "share" of your Personal Data.

You have the right to opt-out of the sale or share of your Personal Data by following the instructions in the "Exercising Your Rights under U.S. State Privacy Laws" section. Once you have submitted an opt-out request, we will not ask you to reauthorize the sale of your Personal Data for at least 12 months.

We sell or share your Personal Data to the following categories of third parties:

- Advertising Partners

Over the past 12 months, we have sold or shared the following categories of Personal Data to categories of third parties listed above:

- Device/IP Data
- Web Analytics

For clarity, we do not sell or share Child User Personal Data. For more detail regarding our processing of such data, please see our Child User Privacy Policy.

Processing of Sensitive Personal Data

The Personal Data of Child Users may be deemed "sensitive" under certain U.S. State Privacy Laws ("Sensitive Personal Data"). For more detail regarding our processing of such data, please see our Child User Privacy Policy.

Anti-Discrimination

We will not discriminate against you for exercising your rights under applicable privacy laws. We will not deny you our goods or services, charge you different prices or rates, or provide you a lower quality of goods and services if you exercise your rights under applicable privacy laws. However, we may offer different tiers of our Services as allowed by applicable data privacy laws with varying prices, rates or levels of quality of the goods or services you receive related to the value of Personal Data that we receive from you.

Other State-Specific Privacy Rights

Under California Civil Code Sections 1798.83-1798.84, California residents are entitled to contact us to prevent disclosure of Personal Data to third parties for such third parties' direct marketing purposes; We do not disclose

Personal Data to third parties for their direct marketing purposes as defined under California Civil Code Sections 1798.83-1798.84. If you would like to learn more, please contact us at help@splashlearn.com.

If you are a resident of Nevada, you have the right to opt-out of the sale of certain Personal Data to third parties. Please note that we do not currently sell your Personal Data as sales are defined in Nevada Revised Statutes Chapter 603A.

Exercising Your Rights under U.S. State Privacy Laws

To exercise the rights described in this Privacy Policy, you or your Authorized Agent (if applicable and as defined below), must send us a request that (1) provides sufficient information to allow us to verify that you are the person about whom we have collected Personal Data (such as your Contact or Profile Data), and (2) describes your request in sufficient detail to allow us to understand, evaluate and respond to it. Each request that meets both of these criteria will be considered a "Valid Request." We may not respond to requests that do not meet these criteria. We will only use Personal Data provided in a Valid Request to verify your identity and complete your request. You do not need an account to submit a Valid Request.

We will work to respond to your Valid Request within the time period required by applicable privacy laws. We will not charge you a fee for making a Valid Request unless your Valid Request(s) is excessive, repetitive or manifestly unfounded. If we determine that your Valid Request warrants a fee, we will notify you of the fee and explain that decision before completing your request.

Request to Opt-Out of Sale, Share, and/or Targeted Advertising

As applicable, you may opt-out from any "sales," "shares," or targeted advertising through Cookies, by using the following methods:

- By accessing your Cookie consent mechanism by accessing your "Cookie Settings" at the bottom left of our website.
- By implementing the Global Privacy Control or similar universal privacy control that is legally recognized by a government agency or industry standard and that complies with applicable State Privacy Laws. The signal issued by the control must be initiated by your browser and applies to the specific device and browser you use at the time you cast the signal. Please note this does not include Do Not Track signals.

Request to Access, Delete, Correct

As applicable, you may submit a Valid Request for your right to access, delete, correct, or obtain a copy of your Personal Data described in this Privacy Policy by using the following methods:

- Email us at: compliance@splashlearn.com

If you are a California, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, Montana, Nebraska, New Hampshire, New Jersey, Oregon, or Texas resident, you may also authorize an agent (an "Authorized Agent") to exercise your rights on your behalf. To do this, you must provide your Authorized Agent with written permission to exercise your rights on your behalf, and we may request a copy of this written permission from your Authorized Agent when they make a request on your behalf.

Appealing a Denial

If you are a Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, Iowa, Montana, Nebraska, New Hampshire, New Jersey, Oregon, Texas, or Virginia resident and we refuse to take action on your request within a reasonable period of time after receiving your request in accordance with this section, you may appeal our decision. In such appeal, you must (1) provide sufficient information to allow us to verify that you are the person about whom the original request pertains and to identify the original request, and (2) provide a description of the basis of your appeal. Please note that your appeal will be subject to your rights and obligations afforded to you under the State Privacy Laws (as applicable). We will respond to your appeal within the time period required under the applicable law. You can submit a Verified Request to appeal by the following methods:

- Email us at: compliance@splashlearn.com (title must include "[STATE OF RESIDENCE] Appeal")

If we deny your appeal, you have the right to contact the Attorney General of your State.

If you are a resident of the European Union ("EU"), United Kingdom, Lichtenstein, Norway or Iceland, you may have additional rights under the EU General Data Protection Regulation (the "GDPR") with respect to your Personal Data, as outlined below.

For this section, we use the terms "Personal Data" and "processing" as they are defined in the GDPR, but "Personal Data" generally means information that can be used to individually identify a person, and "processing" generally covers actions that can be performed in connection with data such as collection, use, storage and disclosure, and includes Child User Personal Data.

SplashLearn will be the controller of your Personal Data processed in connection with the Services. Note that we may also process Personal Data of our customers' end users or employees in connection with our provision of certain services to customers (e.g. educational institutions), in which case we are the processor of Personal Data. If we are the processor of your Personal Data (i.e., not the controller), please contact the controller party in the first instance to address your rights with respect to such data.

If there are any conflicts between this section and any other provision of this Privacy Policy, the policy or portion that is more protective of Personal Data shall control to the extent of such conflict. If you have any questions about this section or whether any of the following applies to you, please contact us at help@splashlearn.com.

Personal Data We Collect

The "What Personal Data Does Company Collect" section above details the Personal Data that we collect from you.

Personal Data Use and Processing Grounds

The "How does the Company Use the Information it Collects" section above explains how we use your Personal Data.

Sharing Personal Data

The "Will Company Share any of the Information it Receives" section above details how we share your Personal Data with third parties.

EU Data Subject Rights

You have certain rights with respect to your Personal Data, including those set forth below. For more information about these rights, or to submit a request, please email us at help@splashlearn.com.

If any request made under this section is clearly unfounded or excessive, we may reject the request or require a reasonable fee to honor the request. Additionally, we may not be able fully comply with your request if it jeopardizes the rights of others, or if it is not required by law, If we decide to reject your request, we will inform you of the reasons for not taking action and provide information on other possible remedies. If we decide that a reasonable fee is necessary, we will promptly inform you and will comply with the request upon receipt of this fee.

In some cases, we may also need you to provide us with additional information, which may include Personal Data, if necessary to verify your identity and the nature of your request.

We will respond to all requests within a reasonable timeframe. If our full response will ever take more than a month due to complexity or scope, we will notify you of this and keep you updated.

Review and update your data: You have the right to access and update any personal data that we have collected. Some personal data, such as the account holder's name and email address can be found and updated using the account management tools on our website at "https://www.splashlearn.com/profile". For any personal data beyond this, please submit a request using the contact information at the end of this section.

Delete your data: You also have the right to get your personal data deleted. This is sometimes known as the 'right to be forgotten'. To request that we delete all personal data about you, please submit a request using the contact information at the end of this section.

For more information on our data deletion and retention practice from the section on "Data Deletion and Retention"

Restrict Processing: You have the right to restrict how we process your personal data in certain circumstances. This is an alternative to requesting the deletion of your data. Rather than requesting we delete all of your personal data, you may request that we limit our uses of your personal data to specific purposes. You may wish to request we restrict our processing if you contest the accuracy of your personal data and we are working to verify this information, or if you want us to retain your personal data in connection to a legal claim but cease processing it.

Withdrawal of Consent: If we are processing your personal data based on your consent (as indicated at the time of collection of such data), you have the right to withdraw your consent at any time. Please note, however, that if you exercise this right, you may have to then provide express consent on a case-by-case basis for the use or disclosure of certain of your Personal Data, if such use or disclosure is necessary to enable you to utilize some or all of our Services.
Data Portability: You have the right to obtain copies of your information in a structured, commonly used format so that you can move your data between our service and the services of others. We may request more information to confirm your identity before providing any personal data.
Right to Object: You have the right to object to the processing of your personal data for direct marketing purposes or when our processing of your data is based on legitimate interests. You may request that we stop processing your personal data for direct marketing purposes. This is an absolute right and we cannot refuse this request. Beyond direct marketing, if you wish to exercise this right, you must give specific reasons as to why you object to our processing of your data, based on your particular situation. Even after receiving such a request, we may continue processing if it is necessary for the exercise/defense of a legal claim or if we can demonstrate a compelling legitimate ground for the processing.
Right to File Complaint: You have the right to lodge a complaint about SplashLearn's practices with respect to your Personal Data with the supervisory authority of your country or EU Member State. A list of Supervisory Authorities is available here: https://edpb.europa.eu/about-edpb/board/members_en

Lawful Bases for Processing Personal Data:

If you are an individual in the European Union (EU) or an EU citizen, we collect and process data about you only where we have legal bases for doing so under applicable EU laws. This means we collect and process your data only when:

1. It is necessary for a legitimate interest (which is not overridden by your individual privacy interests), such as preventing fraud, improving the Services, and increasing the security of the Services and network infrastructure;
2. You have consented to this collection and processing for a specific purpose;
3. It is necessary to fulfil our contractual obligations; or
4. It is necessary to comply with a legal obligation.

Some examples of our legitimate interests and the data being processed include:

- Network and information security (password, IP address, Device ID)
- Customer Support, and fraud prevention (name, email address)
- Improving our products and services (device hardware information, activity logs)

Where we rely on your consent to process your personal data, you have the right to withdraw or decline consent at any time. If you wish to withdraw your consent, please contact us using the information in the Contact for Individual Rights Requests section.
Where we rely on our legitimate interests to process your personal data, you have the right to object. More information on exercising this right can be found in the EU Data Subject Rights section.
If you have any questions about or need further information concerning the legal basis on which we collect and use your personal data, please contact us at help@splashlearn.com

Contact for Individual Rights Requests

International / Cross Border Data Transfers

The Services are hosted and operated in the United States ("U.S.") through SplashLearn and its service providers, and if you do not reside in the U.S., laws in the U.S. may differ from the laws where you reside. By using the Services, you acknowledge that any Personal Data about you, regardless of whether provided by you or obtained from a third party, is being provided to SplashLearn in the U.S. and will be hosted on U.S. servers, and you authorize SplashLearn to transfer, store and process your information to and in the U.S., and possibly other countries. In some circumstances, your Personal Data may be transferred to the U.S. pursuant to a data processing agreement incorporating standard data protection clauses or in reliance on the EU-U.S. Data Privacy Framework ("EU-U.S. DPF") the UK Extension to the EU-U.S. DPF ("UK-U.S. DPF"), and the Swiss-U.S. Data Privacy Framework ("Swiss-U.S. DPF").

EU-U.S. DPF Swiss – U.S. DPF and UK-U.S. DPF

SplashLearn complies with the EU-U.S. DPF, the UK-U.S. DPF, and Swiss-U.S. Data DPF (collectively, the "DPF") as set forth by the U.S. Department of Commerce. SplashLearn has certified to the U.S. Department of Commerce that it adheres to the EU-U.S. Data Privacy Framework Principles (EU-U.S. DPF Principles) with regard to the processing of personal data received from the European Union in reliance on the EU-U.S. DPF and from the United Kingdom (and Gibraltar) in reliance on the UK Extension to the EU-U.S. DPF. SplashLearn has certified to the U.S. Department of Commerce that it adheres to the Swiss-U.S. Data Privacy Framework Principles (Swiss-U.S. DPF Principles) with regard to the processing of personal data received from Switzerland in reliance on the Swiss-U.S. DPF. If there is any conflict between the terms in this privacy policy and the EU-U.S. DPF Principles and/or the Swiss-U.S. DPF Principles, the Principles shall govern. To learn more about the Data Privacy Framework (DPF) program, and to view our certification, please visit https://www.dataprivacyframework.gov/.

The Federal Trade Commission has jurisdiction over SplashLearn's compliance with the DPF. This Privacy Policy describes the types of Personal Data we collect, the purposes for which we collect and use your Personal Data, and the purposes for which we disclose your Personal Data to certain types of third parties in the sections above. Pursuant to the DPF, EU, UK, and Swiss individuals have the right to obtain our confirmation of whether we maintain Personal Data relating to you in the U.S. Upon request, we will provide you with access to the Personal Data that we hold about you. You may also correct, amend, or delete the Personal Data we hold about you. An individual who seeks access, or who seeks to correct, amend, or delete inaccurate data transferred to the U.S. under DPF, should direct their query to compliance@splashlearn.com. If requested to remove data, we will respond within a reasonable timeframe. For more information about rights afforded to you, please see the European Union Data Subject Rights Section of the Privacy Policy.

In addition, we will provide you with the choice to opt-out from the sharing of your Personal Data with any third parties (other than our agents or those that act on our behalf or under our instruction), or before we use it for a purpose that is materially different from the purpose for which it was originally collected or subsequently authorized.

We will provide you with the choice to opt-in to sharing your sensitive Personal Data with any third parties or if we plan to process your Personal Data for a purpose other than those for which it was originally collected or subsequently authorized. To request to limit the use and disclosure of your Personal Data, please submit a written request to compliance@splashlearn.com.

In addition to any other disclosures described in our Privacy Policy, in certain situations, SplashLearn may be required to disclose personal data in response to lawful requests by public authorities, including to meet national security or law enforcement requirements.

SplashLearn is responsible for the processing of personal data it receives, under the DPF Programs , and subsequently transfers to third-parties acting as an agent on its behalf SplashLearn complies with the DPF

Principles for all onward transfers of personal information from the EU, UK and Switzerland, including the onward transfer liability provisions. In particular, SplashLearn remains liable under the DPF Principles if our agents process Personal Data in a manner inconsistent with the DPF Principles, unless SplashLearn proves that we are not responsible for the event giving rise to the damage.

With respect to personal data received or transferred pursuant to the DPF Programs, SplashLearn is subject to the jurisdiction and regulatory enforcement powers of the U.S. Federal Trade Commission and other authorized statutory bodies. In certain situations, SplashLearn commits to resolve DPF Principles-related complaints about the collection and use of your personal data. EU, UK and Swiss individuals with inquiries or complaints regarding our handling of personal data received in reliance on the DPF Programs should contact us at compliance@splashlearn.com. In compliance with the EU-U.S. DPF, the UK Extension to the EU-U.S. DPF and the Swiss-U.S. DPF, SplashLearn commits to refer unresolved complaints concerning our handling of personal data received in reliance on the DPF Programs to BBB National Programs, an alternative dispute resolution provider based in the United States. If you do not receive timely acknowledgment of your DPF Principles-related complaint from us, or if we have not addressed your DPF Principles-related complaint to your satisfaction, please visit www.bbbprograms.org/dpf-complaints for more information or to file a complaint. The services of BBB National Programs are provided at no cost to you.

If your DPF complaint cannot be resolved through the above channels, under certain conditions, you may invoke binding arbitration for some residual claims not resolved by other redress mechanisms. See Annex 1 of the DPF Principles, located at https://www.dataprivacyframework.gov/s/article/ANNEX-I-introduction-dpf?tabset-35584=2.

Cross-Border Transfers other than to the United States

Personal data may be accessed by our personnel in India for the purpose of providing services. In such instances, we use Standard Contract Clauses approved by the European Commission to protect personal data. If you have queries, please contact us using the contact information mentioned at the end of the document.

Changes to this Privacy Policy

Company may revise this Privacy Policy from time to time. Use of information we collect is subject to the Privacy Policy in effect at the time such information is used.

If we make material changes in the way we use Personal Data or Child User Personal Data, we will notify you by posting an announcement on our Services, or by email and, if necessary, obtain prior verifiable parental consent. Schools signed up for a membership will be notified in advance of any material changes to privacy policies, including practices around new or additional data collection, or new ways of using the data that may lessen your privacy and rights.

We encourage you to review this Privacy Policy from time to time, to stay informed about our collection, use, and disclosure of Personal Data through the Service. If you don't agree with any changes to the Privacy Policy, you may terminate your account. By continuing to use the Service after the revised Privacy Policy has become effective, you acknowledge that you accept and agree to the current version of the Privacy Policy.

Questions or Concerns

If you have any questions or concerns regarding privacy on our Services, please send us a detailed email at compliance@splashlearn.com. We will make every effort to resolve your concerns.
