The Curious World website and application are operated by Kidsy Limited, trading as Curious World. We are a company dedicated to the operation and development of apps and other digital products for children, aiming to engage, educate, and entertain. For more information, please see the About Us section of the Curious World website.

Please note that due to a change in ownership in September 2020, Kidsy Limited is now wholly owned by Plato Media Limited. Kidsy Limited forms part of the Plato Media Group of Companies. Plato Media also owns and operates the 'Hopster' website and application - also part of the Plato Media Group of Companies.

This privacy policy is issued on behalf of Kidsy Limited and the Plato Media Group of Companies. References to "Curious World", "we", "us", or "our" relate to the relevant company in the Plato Media Group of Companies responsible for processing your personal information.

We collect, use and are responsible for certain personal information about you. We are regulated under the General Data Protection Regulation which applies across the European Union (including in the United Kingdom) and we are responsible as 'controller' of that personal information.

Our service

The Curious World App can be downloaded without requiring a user to subscribe or provide any personal information. The app is available to download on selected mobile devices and as a web app hosted at kidsy.curiousworld.com.

Please note that your and your children's interactions with a mobile or tablet device where Curious World is installed may involve Apple (or other device manufacturer or other third-party platforms, social media sites and/or other applications or offerings.

The www.curiousworld.com website is separate from our web app hosted at kidsy.curiousworld.com. The web app has been created to be used by children in the same way as the Curious World mobile apps.

Personal information

The personal information we collect about you depends on the particular activities carried out through our website or app. Such information includes:

• your name and email address

• details of any feedback you give us by phone, email, post or via social media

• information about the services we provide to you

• your account details, such as username, login details

• information you chose to give us in relation to a Child Profile within your account, such as your child's first name and date of birth

We use this personal information to:

• create and manage your account with us;

• verify your identity;

• communicate with you about your purchase, account information, or customer service needs;

We have taken steps to have the Curious World App comply with the Children's Online Privacy Protection Act (COPPA) and with all the protections required for the protection of children under the General Data Protection Regulation and associated legislation and guidelines (GDPR). For example, we do not use the Curious World App to collect personal information (as broadly defined by COPPA and GDPR) for purposes of online behavioural advertising. We may, however, in compliance with COPPA and GDPR, collect or share certain information to support our internal operations, such as for performing analytics, enabling or delivering certain types of content or features, and for improving or maintaining the Curious World App.

If you believe that we have collected personal information from someone under the age of 13, please contact us at: privacy@curiousworld.com.

Our legal basis for processing your personal information

When we use your personal information we are required to have a legal basis for doing so. There are various different legal bases upon which we may rely, and these will depend on the personal information in question and the specific context in which we collect it.

The legal bases we may rely on include:
